

ST. MICHAEL'S HOUSE
services for people with intellectual disabilities

RECRUITMENT OF DIRECTORS

St. Michael's House Group is one of Ireland's largest providers of community-based services for children and adults with an intellectual disability. The organisation provides residential, day and clinical services to 1,900 people and their families in the Dublin area.

The organisation has undergone an extensive revision of its governance arrangements and now wishes to appoint a number of new Board Directors. Successful applicants will have the skills and experience to guide the Group actively in attaining its vision, which seeks to ensure that the potential of each individual with an intellectual disability is achieved.

Ideal candidates will have board and/or senior executive experience within one of the following areas: social care, quality and safety, business development, strategic planning, finance, legal and human resources. The organisation is particularly interested to hear from people who also have lived experience of disability.

Interested individuals are asked to email the Company Secretary, Declan Ryan at Declan.ryan@smh.ie to request an information booklet. Completed applications must be submitted by Friday May 4th 2018.
