

Ollscoil Chathair
Bhaile Átha Cliath
Dublin City University

DCU Ability

Launch Programme

1.45 Arrival

2.00 Professor Brian MacCraith,
President of Dublin City University

2.10 Finian McGrath, TD, Minister of State at the Departments of Social Protection, of Justice and Equality, and of Health, with special responsibility for disability issues

2.20 Guest Speaker:
Joanne O’Riordan

2.40 Martin Lyes, Director,
St Michael’s House

2.55 Refreshments

DCU Ability will promote the employability of young people with disabilities to gain the skills, competencies and experiences needed to be career-ready.

Our objective is to create meaningful and tailored pathways into education, training and employability for young people with disabilities, using a person-centred approach.

We will work in partnership with St Michael’s House and all units in DCU to harness our joint expertise, resources and facilities.

dcu.ie/ability

DCU Ability is a joint partnership between Dublin City University and St Michael’s House

ST. MICHAEL’S HOUSE
services for people with intellectual disabilities

An Roinn Gnóthaí Fostaíochta
agus Coimircé Sóisialaí Department of Employment Affairs and Social Protection

European Union
Investing in Your Future
European Social Fund

Ireland’s European Structural and Investment Funds Programmes 2014-2020
Co-funded by the Irish Government and the European Union