This course is for anyone that wants to learn more about staying safe.

We can support you with communication, reading and writing.

We will use pictures, symbols and DVDs to help you learn.

Who can do this course?

On the course we will talk about safety in your home and community.

We will talk about safety where you learn and work.

Who can do this course?

Before you apply for the course, check you understand and are happy with:

- The learning goals

- The assessment you will have to do

- The time the course will take.

How long will the course take?

This course will take around 25 class hours.

You will do work in class and some work at home.

This course is worth 5 credits.

The trainer will tell you how many weeks the course will be on for.

How long will the course take?

The trainer will tell you how long each class will last.

Ask staff in your centre for more information.

What assessments will I have to do?

The assessment for this course is called a portfolio.

You keep all the work you do on the course in a folder.

This folder shows the information and skills you have learnt on the course.

Your work will be assessed at the end of the course.

This means your folder will be checked.

What assessments will I have to do?

The people looking at your work decide it is good enough to pass or that you need to do some more work.

Your work will be assessed by:

Your trainer

Another person from St. Michael's House

A person from QQI

What will I learn on this course?

On this course you will:

Learn what personal safety means and the words we use when we talk about safety.

Think about the places you go where safety is important.

Pick one place that you go to.

Think about your rights and responsibilities in this place when it comes to safety.

Think about one thing you do at home, in your day service or in your community.
Think about the safety risks you might face.
Say what you do to stay safe.

What will I learn on this course?

Think about what you would do in an emergency.

Think about the equipment and the people that help you to stay safe.

Where is this course on?

This course will be on in centres in St. Michael's House.

It may also be on in different places in the community.
