

Education & Learning

What is Fraud?

Fraud is when someone lies to you to take your money.

Fraud can happen:

- ·Online
- Face to face
- Phone calls
- ·Letters
- ·Messages.

Criminals who try to steal your money might ask for:

- ·Your Name
- Address
- Bank Details
- ·Passwords
- ·Passcodes

Some criminals will copy:

- Your bank card
- Steal your name and address
- Send fake emails
- ·Call you to trick you
- Text you fake messages

Education & Learning

Types of Fraud

Payment Card Fraud is when someone uses stolen card's to buy things or withdraw money from ATM's.

Phising- Fake emails with links.

Vishing- Fake phone calls.

Smishing- Fake text messages with links.

Romance Fraud is when someone builds a fake relationship with you on social media or dating apps to try steal your money.

Advance Fee Fraud is when some asks for money before carrying out work or a service.

Example: Someone working on your house.

Education & Learning

Fraud Prevention

Keep your card and pin number safe and do not share with anyone.

Do not click on any suspicious links from emails and text messages

Never give your personal information, mobile number or passwords over the phone to anyone.

Do not gift or send money to someone you met online or in-person if they ask.

Education & Learning

Help with Fraud

If you think you may have given money or information to someone part of a scam, ask for help.

Change your number to prevent further scam calls & texts.

Speak to someone you trust if you are unsure of a text message, email or call.

If you have been a victim of Fraud, Report it to the Gardai.

Call 112 or 999