HSCP Day 2020 – 4th March

HSCP Integrate, Innovate, Deliver

What people did in 2019 to celebrate the Day

University Hospital, Galway - Individual HSCP professions displayed posters and pull up banners. 8 rapid fire presentations of collaborative projects were delivered to a wide audience. The day also included the shadowing of HSCPs by senior management. Lots of engagement with staff and patients.

St. Michael's House, Dublin - HSCP staff recorded short video clips explaining their various roles. SLT, OT, Physiotherapy, Psychology, Dietetics, Play Therapy, Social Work and Social Care all took part. The 12 minute internal staff video was screened in each of 3 bases - Ballymun, Coolock and Goatstown. The coffee break provided the perfect time to watch the video with colleagues.

St. James' Hospital, Dublin - Included Research and Innovation Breakfast Presentations. Keynote presenter, Dr. Anne O'Connor, Interim Director General, HSE, presented on A Perspective on Leadership in Public Services.

CHO DNCC/Mental Health Service, Dublin CHO 9 - Had a celebratory HSCP afternoon tea to share innovative practice, research ideas etc. with clinical psychology, social work and peer support workers colleagues in mental health.

Primary Care, Cavan/Monaghan - Held a HSCP information morning in Drumalee Community Primary Care Team Building, Cavan. Also included a poster display and information stand with promotional leaflets in the foyer of the building.

Cork University Hospital - Showcase of disciplines on posters and banners in hospital foyer. Developed crossword (based on information in HSCP Catalogue) on HSCP role and how they enhance healthcare.
