

National Nursing Strike Action 2019

There will be a National Nursing Strike on Wednesday 30th January 2019.

Most nurses in Ireland will not be working for 24 hours.

This is called a strike.

Some of St. Michael's House day services will close on 30th January and re-open on 31st January.

We will keep you informed if there are going to be more strikes.